

In 2021, there are 122,494
homeless people in Australia.

In Australia, one out of every 200
people is homeless.

Number of people experiencing homelessness in each state of Australia

Percentage of people experiencing homelessness in each state of Australia

New South Wales Victoria Queensland Northern Territory Western Australia South Australia Tasmania Australian Capital Territory

Homeless people by the Gender

Percentage of Female and Male experiencing homelessness in each states of Australia :

Homeless Opreation Groups of Female and Male in Australia :

The states and territories with the highest rates of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people experiencing homelessness were:

The age of people experiencing homelessness :

Identifying the Homelessness in Australia